

“The Roar of the Revolution”

Project Patrons

The Virginia Society of the Children of the American Revolution invites you to become a V.S.C.A.R. Badger, Noble Mouse, Centaur, or Majestic Lion by supporting State President Madeline Herring’s restoration project at St. John’s Church Richmond, site of the Second Virginia Convention where Patrick Henry gave his “Give me Liberty or Give me Death!” speech.

The state project will raise funds for the St. John’s Church Foundation to restore a now dormant 1850 Meneely bell in need of great repair. The funds raised by the V.S.C.A.R. will pay for the replacement of crucial parts of the bell and its supports, and rust removal. Any extra funds will go to a maintenance plan to ensure that the bell is well taken care of into the future. When the restoration is complete, the bell will ring once more with the sound of Liberty! Every time you hear it you will reflect with pride on the accomplishments of the Virginia Society Children of the American Revolution and the part you played in it.

Take a trip through the wardrobe to 1775 and contribute to “The Roar of the Revolution!” Donors will be recognized in the State Conference Banquet Program at the following levels:
